

BLACK CULTURAL ARTS & CRAFTS SHOP and COMMUNITY SERVICES

In the heart of Brixton near the Brixton Recreation Centre and Market is the Negusa Negast Local 3 Enterprise located at No. 53 Brixton Station Road.

The Negusa Negast Local 3 Enterprise is reflecting the social enterprise aspect of the Ethiopian World Federation Inc., Negusa Negast Local #3 with an amazing and charming cultural shop.

For the pleasure of the visitor the Cultural shop has on display a large collection of Ethiopian / African and Caribbean garments, shamas, natalas, hats, T-shirts for men, women and children; also cultural books, magazines, DVDs, videos, pendants, badges, artefacts, posters, the original Lion of Judah flag, wood/skin drums and many other products related to Black peoples of the world.

As a new retail and service social enterprise the Negusa Negast enterprise shop is looking forward to improving its services within the community, is working towards supporting Lambeth's people and partnering with other enterprises with similar objectives.

Special orders can be made in advance. Products can also be purchased on a wholesale basis and prices are affordable to all. A website will soon be available.

Feel free, come and visit the Negusa Negast Local 3 Enterprise cultural shop @ 53 Brixton Station Road, London SW9 8PQ.

The shop is open Monday - Saturday 10am - 7pm.
