

WHERE DO YOU STAND?

Perfect love and blessings Rastafari family

Right now I man don't want to speak in terms of Black Supremacy or its counterpart White Supremacy –the I know. You may say Wha a gwan Iyah!

No disrespect to the black liberators, freeman fighters all those who have paid the price of African liberation in blood, no disrespect to Fiya youths who want to make a revolutionary change, with careful study and incremental steps in governance, through higher education this will be achieved.

InI will always rally with those who are on the front line fighting to set the captive minds free –where else could I be?

Now the black man need not to prove a point about his blackness nor his supremacy, his-story has declared who he is, his origination, and all those who came in to being from him.

Who among InI is trying to disprove what is already proven? Or who is struggling to accept these facts?

The white man need not to beat his chest about his white supremacy or stock pile weapons of mass destruction complemented with puppet governments to defend it.

InI already know of his stolen legacy and sick mentality that preaches decades of religious misconception that the black man is inferior. With the bible and sword in hand, It is said divide them and conquer them, make them life time slaves of religious doctrines and rituals, turn them into zombies, and fanatics.

The wise white Rasta will share the inheritance handed down to them from their ancestors, if any or use their intelligence to set ways and means create sustainable Rastafari communities –Know that one Ras Tafari for InI all. Qadamawi Haile Selassie is for Iver

InI fully aware that Rastafari is above colour of skin – No reason to Fiya bun! It is the Ites of livity that will be the I testimony, black or white –

Now Rastafari beware of self generated racial war and premeditated thoughts of evil, the same will be knocking at your door when you least expect it –How will you react?

The is a road paved for distraction lined with gossip and fancy bling lights, the slick talker and twisted mind is on a constant rehearsal to create mental instability and distraction-

InI don't have time to play cyber games with detractors -Hot Fiya!-

Rastafari Forums must be for InI social networking, to get InI business done in a timely manner. It is also designed to educate all those willing to learn. The business of the forum should be conducted without stress or policing. The forum should not be the place to fight off invading bands and hackers -

Touch not the lord anointed and do his Ingels no harm that is the word out -For Jah Rastafari wrath may kindle just a little and send the lightening, thunder brimstone and Fiya!!

Can you stand in the judgement, if found guilty?
